Dr. W. C. Brown, Dentist. Office in the new stone building north of the Post Office.

I am selling out my Jones chain mowers and rakes--$85 while they last. Get one now--C. H. Voegtly.

Chas Davis came over from Harney Monday and spent a few days with us. He was accompanied by Miss Zella Irving.

Charles Tribble, who has held a position in the Lunenburg & Dalton mercantile establishment for several weeks, left the other day for his home in Missouri. He went back on account of sickness.

Dave Miller was renewing acquaintances in this city during the week. He came over from Drewsey with J. D. Daly and it was his first visit for two years. He reports business rather dull in his burg at present but men are much in demand and ranchers are busy and prosperous.

R. C. Angevine arrived here the first of the week and has since been renewing old acquaintances. Bob has been living in Clifton, Arizona, since he left Burns a few years ago, but like all old timers has drifted back. He is looking well and his friends hope he will remain permanently.

L. Woldenberg and family arrived here from Baker City Wednesday. Mrs. Woldenberg and little daughters remained here on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Williams but Louie left Thursday for points along the Blue Mt. Rapid Transit stage line of which he is now general manager.

Cards were received by friends in this city yesterday announcing the marriage of J. W. Biggs and Miss Mary Byram at Baker City on June 11th. The bride is an accomplished young lady whose home was in New York. She is a cousin to Mrs. W. L. Marsden and was here last year working in the law office of Biggs & Biggs as a stenographer. Mr. and Mrs. Biggs are now en route home and are expected within the next few days. They will make their home on the Biggs farm just north of this city. The Times-Herald joins a host of friends in extending best wishes.

All the officers and stockholders of the First National Bank of this city were present at a meeting of the directors the first of the week with the exception of N. U. Carpenter. President J. D. Daly, Vice President C. A. Haines, Hon. A. J. Johnson, J. L. Gault, Dr. J. W. Geary and H. M. Horton went over the affairs of the bank and were well pleased with the very material increase in the business of the institution during the past year. The surplus fund was increased to $14,000.

Hon. A. J. Johnson took his departure Thursday morning for his home in Corvallis. He really desired to prolong his stay but was called home on business in connection with the opening of his new National bank there on July 1st. Mr. Johnson expects to visit us again the first part of October.

Hon. C. W. Parrish came in yesterday from his Izee ranch. This is his first visit home since last fall. He spent a greater portion of the winter at Portland and other western Oregon points. Mr. Parrish is much improved in health. He is accompanied by his son Sam and they expect to return to Izee in a few days.

Dr. W. L. Marsden is in receipt of $100 the donation of W. W. Brown, the Wagonite horseman, to the public library of this city. Mr. Brown's liberality is duly appreciated by those active in promoting this very laudable work and this contribution is most opportune as it will put the library in better shape for public good.
